WHERE IS YOUR SECRET SPACE IN ST ANNES?

Discover the quieter side of our lovely seaside town

When you think of St Annes, you might picture the beach, the pier, the promenade and the bustling town centre. But just beyond the well-known sights are some lovely little places where you can escape the crowds and enjoy a quieter moment. So, on your next stay at the Clifton Park, why not go exploring and discover your own secret space in St Annes?

One of our favourites is Ashton Gardens, right in the heart of the town. With its winding paths, colourful gardens and peaceful corners, it is a lovely place to take a stroll or simply sit and enjoy the surroundings. Don't miss the Japanese Garden and the beautiful rock and water garden.

If you're looking for somewhere with a sea view, take a walk along to Fairhaven Lake. Wander a little further around the lake and you'll find quieter spots where you can sit and enjoy views across the Ribble Estuary. It's also a great place for watching the birds and enjoying the fresh sea air.

Closer to home, you may discover the Peace and Happiness Garden, tucked away near St Annes Pier. It's a small, sheltered garden and a lovely place to pause for a few minutes, particularly when the sun is shining.

And if you fancy getting out into nature, why not follow the dunes between St Annes and Fairhaven? The footpaths provide a quieter alternative to the main promenade, with the beach and coastline providing a wonderful backdrop for a leisurely stroll.

Of course, the beauty of a secret space is that everyone can have their own favourite. It might be a bench with a view, a quiet garden, a favourite stretch of beach or simply somewhere you can sit with a cup of coffee and watch the world go by.

So, next time you stay at the Clifton Park, take a little time to explore beyond the familiar sights.

You never know, you might just find your own favourite corner of St Annes.

MEET THE STAFF TOM

Meet the Team: A Familiar Face Behind the Keys!

If you've dined with us at Clifton Park over the last decade, chances are you've been greeted by Tom's warm smile. A valued member of our restaurant team for 10 years, Tom is a true local through and through, born and bred right here in St Annes. For Tom, working at Clifton Park feels just like home, he loves the friendly atmosphere, getting along with his great colleagues, and chatting with guests old and new.

While many of you know him for his fantastic service, you might not know about his incredible musical journey. Tom's love for music began at just seven years old when he first sat down at a piano. By 18, he had already achieved Grade 8 with Distinction, before furthering his studies at Fylde College and graduating with an Associate Trinity College London diploma.

Alongside his role at the hotel, where you can sometimes even spot him playing the piano for us! Tom passes on his passion by teaching piano and regularly performing in local concerts, choirs and recitals. (Fun fact: he even used to play in a 50s/60s rock 'n' roll band!) His ambition doesn't stop there; he is currently working hard toward exams to join the prestigious Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester this year.

When it comes to listening and playing, Tom's musical tastes run deep. He's a big fan of classical masters like Chopin, Beethoven, and Mozart, but he's just as happy playing modern hits from Ed Sheeran and Taylor Swift.

Outside of work and music, Tom keeps busy with a couple of grounded and not-so-grounded hobbies. He loves spending time in the garden, but when he's looking for a real adventure, he takes to the skies! A huge aviation enthusiast, Tom has already logged 23 hours of flying Cessna and Piper Warrior aircraft.

Next time you see Tom in the restaurant, be sure to say hello, ask for a song, and wish him the best of luck with his upcoming music exams!

THE ISLAND CINEMA

Looking for something to do during your stay? Why not enjoy a trip to the recently refurbished Island Cinema?

Just a short stroll from the Clifton Park Hotel, The Island Cinema on South Promenade is a lovely local option for a relaxed afternoon or evening out.

Recently refurbished, the cinema now offers comfy sofa-style seating, giving you plenty of room to sit back, relax and enjoy your film in comfort. It has four screens, showing a great selection of the latest films as well as occasional special screenings.

One of the things that makes The Island particularly appealing is its excellent value. Tickets and refreshments are reasonably priced, so you can enjoy the full cinema experience without the hefty price tag you might find at some of the larger chains. There's a good choice of snacks and drinks too, perfect for enjoying during the film.

As an independent local cinema, The Island also has a friendly, welcoming atmosphere that makes it feel rather different from a large multiplex. It's a great way to spend a couple of hours if the weather isn't cooperating, or simply if you fancy a change of pace after a day exploring St Annes and the surrounding area.

So, if you're staying with us at the Clifton Park Hotel and fancy a comfortable seat, a good film and some great-value snacks, why not give The Island Cinema a try?
