

Celebration of Life

Dainton Park Golf Club offers a beautiful and serene setting for a Celebration of Life event, providing a peaceful and uplifting atmosphere to honour and remember your loved one. Our dedicated event planning team can assist in coordinating all aspects of the event, from choosing the perfect space for gatherings to arranging catering and other aspects.

We appreciate that it is a difficult time and our team will keep the wake running smoothly, ensuring everything at Dainton is taken care of, so you do not have to worry. All we want is for you to share memories with close family and friends, exchange words and smile over your loved one knowing that everything is our control.

With our expert guidance and attention to detail, Dainton Park Golf Club can ensure that your Celebration of Life is a heartfelt and meaningful tribute to your loved one.

It is difficult to anticipate the amount of people that would want to pay their respects on the day and we will work with you, recommending the most suitable space for you.

The Oak Room seats up to 100 people, allowing room for memory boards, flowers and your buffet and is £150 to hire.

The Orangery seats up to 50 people and has its own private terrace which overlooks the 18th, it is £75 to hire.

If you are expecting a bigger turnout than The Oak Room can allow we are able to connect both of our function rooms through glass bifold doors.
