

Meeting & Events at The Wood Norton

Overlooking the stunning Vale of Evesham and Cotswold countryside, The Wood Norton is an independently owned and operated boutique country house hotel, where exceptional service, attention to detail and genuine hospitality are woven into every experience. Blending heritage charm with contemporary facilities, it offers an inspiring environment for productive meetings, successful events and memorable stays

The Wood Norton is a beautifully crafted hotel built by the Duc D'Orleans, exiled French Royalty in 1897. Home to the D'Orleans family who lived here until 1912, featuring original 19th century French decorative interiors and the very best the modern world has to offer.

In 1939 the estate was famously bought by the BBC so it could relocate its operations away from London in the event of hostilities.
